

VOLUME 2 NO 14 6 JULY 1980 FORTNIGHTLY NEWS DIARY FOR READING
COPY FOR NEXT ISSUE COVERING 21 JULY-14 AUGUST IN BEFORE 19 JULY
CALL READING 662285 OR 868194 OR WRITE 31B MILMAN ROAD
RED RAG IS FREE BUT WE WELCOME DONATIONS FOR MATERIALS (TA,SS & CB)

DIARY

MONDAY 7 JULY

- 1 Cruise missiles. In the event of a nuclear alert there will be cruise missiles based at Greenham Common, Newbury, dispersed to Reading. A meeting of the Newbury campaign againsts cruise missiles tonight at 8pm at the United Reformed Church, Cromwell Place, Newbury, this is opposite Marks & Spencer in the town centre.
- 2 Reading Women's Group meets at 8pm in the Old Town Hall and will talk about 'Beyond the Fragments'.

WEDNESDAY 9 JULY

There will be a picnic at Greenham Common later this month (see entry for 20 July). A planning meeting to organise this will be held tonight, call Acorn books for venue.

MONDAY 14 JULY

Stand by the Adwest strikers. Rally to the gates in Headley Road East, Woodley, to support the day of action to stop the scabs and close the factory. From 6am.

TUESDAY 15 JULY

- 1 Reading District Councillors are tabling a motion opposing cruise missiles at Greenham Common. Rally to the Civic Offices 6-6.30 to support the motion and lobby councillors.
- 2 Women's issues: do we fight for state provision or create our own alternatives? Reading women's liberation group discussion, women welcome, 26 New Road Reading, 8pm. CONTACT Heather, 868308

SUNDAY 20 JULY

- 1 Walk and picnic to Greenham Common. Starts 2pm Newbury Bus Station. Bring what you expect to find. Contact Acorn for details.
- 2 Tolpuddle Martyrs memorial rally, coach from Newbury, for details call Alan Hopper, Reading 864067

MONDAY 21 JULY

A conference of Reading womens groups, planning meeting, Old Town Hall, 8pm. The conference is planned for October 4.

That's all. next issue: skill-sharing; what happened to RARC.